Abstract

I've been programming since 2018. I've worked with vanilla PHP, JavaScript, HTML, CSS, SQL, as well as Python with various libraries, mostly Openpyxl, Requests, BeautifulSoup, and Tkinter. I've developed static and dynamic websites, Telegram bots, and Chrome extensions for personal use. I've automated a number of workflows for employers, including web scraping and parsing local files of various formats, populating documents, data visualization, generating bibliographic citations, and more.
